

DO DHAM YATRA BY HELICOPTER

The Do Dham Yatra is a sacred journey that takes devotees to two of the holiest Hindu temples in India - Yamunotri and Gangotri. These temples are located in the picturesque state of Uttarakhand, nestled amidst the majestic Himalayan mountains.

The Yamunotri temple is dedicated to Goddess Yamuna, the goddess of the sacred river Yamuna. It is believed that taking a dip in the holy waters of the Yamuna river and offering prayers at this temple can cleanse one's sins and bring spiritual enlightenment.

Gangotri temple, on the other hand, is dedicated to Goddess Ganga, the goddess of the holy river Ganges. It is believed that a visit to this temple and a dip in the Ganges river can wash away one's sins and pave the way for salvation.

The Do Dham Yatra is not only a religious journey but also an opportunity to witness the breathtaking beauty of the Himalayas and the surrounding landscapes. The trek to these temples is often filled with stunning views of snow-capped peaks, lush green meadows, and gushing rivers.
